

What the ACSC has done

Published 27 alerts and 12 advisories to cyber.gov.au – which saw more than 7.8 million visits

Published more than 40 step-by-step guides to support older Australians, families and businesses to implement sound cyber security practices

Expanded the Partnership Program to include three tiers of membership: Network, Business, and Home

- ACSC now has more than 1,700 network partners, 2,000 business partners, and tens of thousands of home partners

Supported 18 cyber security exercises involving over 50 organisations to strengthen Australia's cyber resilience

Launched the CI-UP pilot to help protect Australia's most critical systems

Grew the active Information Security Registered Assessors Program (IRAP) with the number of assessors grown by more than 20% since the program reopened in January 2021